THERE is a proposal, we hear, to utilise Victoria College, during the summer vacation, as the Supreme Court, in order that the present Hall of Justice may undergo an overhaul. We fear, however, that the proposal is not a feasible one. After having been housed so long in her stuffy, dingy and disreputable-looking abode, in Queen's Road, Justice would feel too much the change to the splendours of Victoria College.

Before Mr Hastings at the Magistracy to-day, Lam Ching, shopkeeper, was charged with unlawfully depositing 81 cans of kerosene oil on a landing stage at Praya Central, contrary to Ordinance 8 of 1873. Acting-Inspector Kemp stated that at 11,20 a.m. on 20th inst., he found the kerosene stored on the landing stage at the steam launch wharf. It was covered with some old ganny ba's, and was not marked 'dangerous.' No owner could be found and the kerosene was taken to the Central Police Station. Shortly afterwards the kerosane was claimed by the defendant, who stated to the Magistrate that he bought the kerosene from the Choung Chung shop, but was supplied with it from a boat. He had to leave the landing stage while he went to get a boat to take it on board a junk. Fined $25; kerosene forfeitod.

Once more in their element the Stanley

Company gave an excellent variety entertainment last night. Miss Nelly de Lorme sang 'Come back to Erin' very swells and was followed by Miss Ada Maitland in the pretty ballad Barney, take me Home. Later in the evening these young ladies sang the patriotic dust 'England and Ireland's Own, which fell a bit fist, probably on account of the audience failing to find in the fraternal sentiment of the duet a reflex of the true relations between Ireland and Britain at the present moment. In an English music hall, it was just the sect of duet to elicit the hunky huzzar of the people. Miss Fanny Stanley, who appears to know how to dress to the best advantage, was as charming as ever in her serio-comic gems. She would be a valuable member of any travelling company, and as becomes a conscientious artiste she spares no pains to make her turn a success. Of course, Miss Cissie Denver is the star. By request, she sang Tosti's Good Bys in a manner which displayed all the carefulness of vocalization for which she is now known, and as a concession to popular demands she gave 'Twas within a mile o' Edinborn' toon, and Comin' thro the rye. Her pronunciation of Scotch is not quite faultless, but the sough wore so well rendered that this might readily be overlooked. Regret was expressed at the absence of Mr Stanley Channel. The centre of the typhoon ap- through indisposition, and his place was taken for the nonge by Mr Phillips, who cracked jokes right merrily with Messra Duriah and Nolau, the two corner men. Here are two examination papers which show what a mas ery of English is sometimes attained by Chinese students of language in Hongkong. The subject of these two brilliant essays is 'The life of any distinguished Scholar, Soldier or Sailor you have read of in History.' Essayist

In the present century there was a famous scholar called Macaulay. His father, mother and brothers were wise and did his business very earnestly. His heart was very sealous against slavery but failed to teach his brothers. He shared a large part in the Reform Bill and debated with many o his equils. When he went to India he said that he had dev ured Greeks Latin and English Essays. In History he knew much than any other people. When he was young he had gained a medal by the examination of Latin declamation. He often said that he desired to put himself in the great library. He is now famous on account of his history which he wrote.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

TIHIS Review, which was intended to most L the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of ' Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Twentieth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China

Mail Office.1 The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imporial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject. The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in advance. Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. 'All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Remew.'-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) 'The China Review * * * * has an excellent table of contents.' - Celestial Empire. 'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding

numbers.'-Celestial Empire. 'This number contains several articles of interest and value.'-North-China Herald 'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain | and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of Chins and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysanthemum. The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Emwhich will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which

"On Chinese Oaths in Western Eorneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete are as usual very interesting."-North-China

the number.'-H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature. antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable: and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors . Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predeconsor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure
